New State Street Business Opens

THE HITCHING POST TAP HOUSE, 519 1/2 STATE ST.

The Hitching Post Tap House opened the doors for its Grand Opening at 519 1/2 State Street Friday June 4th. Belle Fourche's newest downtown business will be open 3 to 10 PM and will have on tap, and be serving, a variety of craft beers.

They will have a food menu that will feature Dough Traders Pizza but will not be serving from their food menu on Friday or Saturday as they are having fresh smoked BBQ prepared by Mike Kahler to kick off their Grand opening weekend.

If you been watching things develop you may have noticed the remodeling going on in the east half of Cindy Giacometto's Waddell and Reed Financial Advisors building and the new sign by Mountain Man Metal Art, Signs, Fabrication and More that went up last weekend.

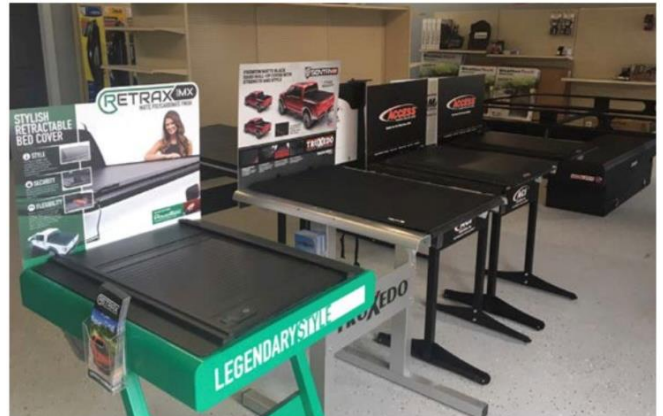

Hitching Post owners PeeDee and Slade Hanson reside near Aladdin, Wyoming. PeeDee is no stranger to the area as the former Scott Peterson Motors employee has owned and operated the Blue Spruce Coffee Truck, and the Coffee Hut on the old Belle Road in Spearfish the past several years. Belle Fourche Beacon

Work Rigs Limited Not Limited To Work Rigs

Former area housing contractor, Miles Foley, has opened a new business, Work Rigs Limited, located at 67 N 6th Ave, Belle Fourche.

They sell and install many items, including, but not limited to, floor mats, mud flaps, tonneau covers, ladder racks, toolboxes, LED lights, bumpers, grille guards, hitches, etc. Brands like WeatherTech, Weather Guard, Lund, Access, B&W, Truxedo, Bushwacker, Westin, Magnum, Buyers, AVS, and many more.

Accessories will be available for anything from a Ford Ranger to a Kenworth.

At present the installs on big trucks is somewhat limited right now because the current shop isn't big enough to fit them in, so everything on the big rigs will be done outside.

They will customize job trailers, work vans, plank trailers, skeleton trailers, etc.

The goal is to stock almost everything that anyone would need to set up a work truck, whether it's that little Colorado the estimator drives, the one ton out there bouncing around the jobs carrying the tools, the Peterbilt getting the materials delivered, or anything in between. Miles said, "I am constantly trying to get in with different brands, so if there is a particular brand someone wants, if I can't get it now, I will try to make it happen."

They have access to many brands, but there are some they are in process of becoming an authorized dealer for.

It doesn't stop at work, they do family rigs too. Miles added, "I also sell and install accessories for SUVs and passenger vans. After all, they still need hitched and wiring to pull a camper, or a roof rack to haul the hunting gear, maybe a hitch rack to carry the kids' toys. Bike racks? You bet I sell them! What I absolutely love doing is improving vehicles, whether it is something small like floor mats, or something big that will transform the entire vehicle. Improvements that are purely cosmetic, or strictly practical, I love them all!" Belle Fourche Beacon

Posy Palace Opens Redwater Market

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

BELLE FOURCHE – Although the Posy Palace floral shop has been in existence for more than 45 years, with its location being south of Belle Fourche on Highway 85, and many people familiar with longtime owner Daryll Umenthum, many people might miss the shop that adds so much to the local community.

The location of the shop is 839 State Street, east of the Post Office. And they've added something new. Something so enticing that many people will be drawn just by the name of the new portion of the business, Redwater Market and Junkin' at the Station.

Shelly Kapsa purchased the business in December of 2000 from the family of Daryll Umenthum and has been in the business of flowers ever since. Recently Toniya Canales came into the business and is essential in running the market portion of the business as well as hosting the Junkin' at the Station Pop Up Market (the old gas station next door) events, the most recent was May 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The pop-up market in the old station is usually the second Saturday of each month and has many vintage and upcycled offerings.

Kapsa brings 20+ years of floral expertise to the business and focuses mainly on that part of the Posy Palace/Redwater Market. They offer all types of arrangements for all occasions as well as cut flowers and balloon and small gifts.

"We haven't morphed at all just continue to be the same full service floral shop that we have always been," said Canalas. "We have added a large gift selection through Redwater Market."

Canalas chooses most all the offerings in Redwater Market, including jewelry, home decor, gourmet foods and treats, plants, and wine selections. She has been in the retail industry for the past 30 years.

The two parts of the business complement each other by offering a large variety under one roof for their customers' convenience.

Business hours are from Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Delivery is available. You can find more information at <https://www.posypalaceflowers.com/>, or you can call the shop at 605-892-2244. You can find them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/Posy-Palace-Florist-411742659253118>.
